

Inclusion & Diversity e-News | Sept 2019

Spring is here and with the onset of the warmer weather, a host of new activities and news.

It's been a busy winter for Inclusive Sport SA as we once again expanded the office team. We are pleased to introduce Ben Steer as our new Rapidswim Manager. Ben will join the team and look after the Rapidswim component of General Manager, Services Bianca Dubois's duties as she takes 12-month maternity leave. We would like to wish Bianca all the best in this exciting new chapter and welcome Ben to the ISSA team.

Winter sports are wrapping up for the year with finals time upon most codes. Good luck to all players, coaches, parents/guardians and clubs in their finals campaigns for the top spot. Congratulations to those who have already played and won their Grand Final games, including the winners of the APM Inclusive League Grand Final – Eastern Park Football Club and the AMND C6 Division - Semaphore Netball Club.

The cold weather sure did not stop those attending our Rapidswim Learn to Swim and Aquatic Therapy with nearly all of the combined 14 programs at capacity throughout Term 3. A few spots are available for Term 4, but make sure you get in quick for summer.

Our Positive Behaviour Support (PBS) team have been putting in the kilometres from down south to the northern suburbs visiting clients and running workshops. In August, the team presented at the Pennington Early Childhood

If you haven't seen our brilliant Well Played campaign, jump onto our Facebook page and spend a minute or two watching this 12 part video series. Released over the coming months, the series tell the story of our South Australian athletes with disability, their teams, clubs and coaches living an extraordinarily ordinary life of sport. Like our page to keep up to date with and share these wonderful experiences of the benefit that sport can have on us all.

See you around the grounds...
